In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts are established by a preponderance of the evidence or clear and convincing evidence and require the detention of the above-named defendant pending trial in this case.

[ ] (5) I find that there is no condition or combination of conditions set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(c) which will reasonably assure the safety of any other person or the community.

Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the indictment, the evidence submitted at the hearing, and the information submitted in the Pretrial Services Agency report establish by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant Prince Artman Latoya is a 33 year old male citizen of Sierra Leone and has no legal status in the United States.
2. Defendant Latoya is presently charged by criminal complaint of fraud in connection with identification documents and information, and fraud in connection with access devices in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 1028(a)(7) and 1029(a)(3). Defendant faces a penalty range of up to fifteen years confinement.
3. Defendant Latoya has a criminal history that includes convictions for misdemeanor theft, felony credit card abuse, and driving while intoxicated.
4. The Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement has issued a detainer against defendant.
5. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
